

W I N E

The story of wine is not just in the sip we take. It is of a journey starting in the soil and ending in a glass. From root to vine, vineyard to winery and cellar to table. Each wine should have a sense of place, a story to tell and taste of where it came from.

I believe that wine is a love affair, passionate and personal. May my selection provide you with a roadmap of South Africa's diverse terroir, the occasional journey abroad for those feeling adventurous and send you home with your own love story to tell.
