Dear Guest

Welcome to the Dullstroom Inn Pub & Restaurant.

The Dullstroom Inn's history can be traced back to 1912 and was Mpumalanga's best kept secret for decades, until the first ever Sunday Times "Finders keepers" prize of a million rand was hidden in the well known English Pub, in 1989.

Guinness Book of Records: The Barrel that was used for the world record pole sitting, from 17th March 1997 is mounted next to the historical fire place in the pub.

Join the locals for a stroll down memory lane during Happy Hour, around our crackling log fire that has been burning for close on 38 years or just sit back and enjoy a relaxing time with family and friends.
