

We are currently using Zucchini's kitchen to supply us with their scrumptious food!

Like all new endevours, we would like to ask your help with this transition of kitchens by please informing us if there is anything not quite right with your meal.

We want to offer you only our very best by combining our two kitchens and, with a bit of training and a pinch of patience, we will be able to supply great home cooked meals just like you'd expect from an award winning kitchen to Windmill & Zucchini.
