

Indian Street Food Brunch

1 November | 11:00 | 12 Guests | R250

Served Tapas Style

Cocktail idli: A light South Indian steamed rice and lentil cake served with refreshing coconut chutney

Pav Bhaji: Mumbai's most popular street food - A hearty medley of seasonal vegetables, slowly cooked and blended together, served with soft home-made buns.

Gol gappa: An interactive classic street food. Puffed, crispy rounds are poked open and stuffed with potatoes, chickpeas, chutney, and masala water, filling your mouth with a cooling explosive sensation.

Kathi Kebab Rolls: These come hot and ready-to-eat off the streets in Delhi. Egg wrapped in an Indian flat-bread combined with marinated chicken & warm blends of Indian herbs. Inquire for vegetarian alternative.

Papdi Chaat: Bits of crunchy wafer are mixed with raw onions, pieces of boiled potato, chickpeas and chopped cilantro, topped with yoghurt, tamarind chutney and some special masalas.

Pumpkin Kheer: A cooling, nourishing pumpkin pudding infused with cardamom, almonds and saffron that is sure to bring a sweet refreshing end to your brunch.
