Friendship

Friendship is a priceless gift that cannot be bought nor sold But its value is far greater than a mountain made of gold

For gold is cold and lifeless it can neither see nor hear In time of trouble is powerless to cheer it has no ears to listen no heart to understand

It cannot bring you comfort or reach out a helping hand
And so when you ask god for gift be thankful if he send not diamond pearl or riches but the love of a real true friend

- Muhammad Ali

The Laughter of Pomegranates

The red anemone laughs, too, but through its mouth you glimpse a blackness.

A laughing pomegranate brings the whole garden to life.
Keeping the company of the holy makes you one of them Whether you are stone or marble, you will become a jewel when you reach a human being of heart.

Plant the love of the holy ones within your spirit; don't give your heart to anything but the love of those whose hearts are glad.

Don't go to the neighborhood of despair: there is hope.
Don't go in the direction of darkness: suns exist.

The heart guides you to the neighborhood of the saints; the body takes you to the prison of water and earth.
Give your heart the food of holy friends; seek maturity from those who have matured.

- Rumi

If you buy a pomegranate, buy one whose ripeness has caused it to be cleft open with a seed-revealing smile.

Its laughter is a blessing, for through its wide-open mouth it shows its heart, like a pearl in the jewel box of spirit.

The Tiger

Tiger tiger burning bright,
In the forests of the night;
What immortal hand or eye,
Could frame thy fearful symmetry?

In what distant deeps or skies.
Burnt the fire of thine eyes?
On what wings dare he aspire?
What the hand, dare seize the fire?

And what shoulder, & what art,
Could twist the sinews of thy heart?
And when thy heart began to beat,
What dread hand? & what dread feet?

What the hammer? what the chain,
In what furnace was thy brain?
What the anvil? what dread grasp,
Dare its deadly terrors clasp!

When the stars threw down their spears
And water'd heaven with their tears:
Did he smile his work to see?
Did he who made the Lamb make thee?

Tiger tiger burning bright,
In the forests of the night:
What immortal hand or eye,
Dare frame thy fearful symmetry?

- William Blake

The Call of the Wild

Have you gazed on naked grandeur where there's nothing else to gaze on, Set pieces and drop-curtain scenes galore, Big mountains heaved to heaven, which the blinding sunsets blazon, Black canyons where the rapids rip and roar?
Have you swept the visioned valley with the green stream streaking through it, Searched the Vastness for a something you have lost?
Have you strung your soul to silence?
Then for God's sake go and do it; Hear the challenge, learn the lesson, pay the cost

Have you wandered in the wilderness, the sagebrush desolation,
The bunch-grass levels where the cattle graze?

Have you whistled bits of rag-time at the end of all creation, And learned to know the desert's little ways?

Have you camped upon the foothills, have you galloped o'er the ranges,

Have you roamed the arid sun-lands through and through?
Have you chummed up with the mesa?

Do you know its moods and changes? Then listen to the Wild -- it's calling you.

Have you known the Great White
Silence,
not a snow-gemmed twig aquiver?
(Eternal truths that shame our soothing lies).

Have you broken trail on snowshoes? mused your huskies up the river,
Dared the unknown, led the way, and clutched the prize?

Have you marked the map's void spaces, mingled with the mongrel races, Felt the savage strength of brute in every thew?
And though grim as hell the worst is, can you round it off with curses?
Then hearken to the Wild -- it's wanting you.

Have you suffered, starved and triumphed, groveled down, yet grasped at glory, Grown bigger in the bigness of the whole?

"Done things" just for the doing, letting babblers tell the story, Seeing through the nice veneer the naked soul?

Have you seen God in His splendors, heard the text that nature renders?
(You'll never hear it in the family pew).

The simple things, the true things, the silent men who do things --

Then listen to the Wild -- it's calling you.

They have cradled you in custom, they have primed you with their preaching,
They have soaked you in convention through and through;

They have put you in a showcase; you're a credit to their teaching -- But can't you hear the Wild? -- it's calling you.

Let us probe the silent places, let us seek what luck betide us;
Let us journey to a lonely land
I know.

There's a whisper on the night-wind, there's a star a gleam to guide us,
And the Wild is calling, calling . . .
let us go.

- William Blake
